

LOCKHEED MARTIN

LOCKHEED MARTIN SPACE
SUPPLIER RECOGNITION AWARD FOR
SUPPLIER OF THE YEAR
PRESENTED TO

Aerospace Engineering, LLC
A Division of Karman Space and Defense

We present this award to Aerospace Engineering, LLC for being an extension of the Lockheed Martin family – a partner to our Central Procurement build to print team function. This California-based manufacturer and fabricator of build to print components has been an excellent supplier working with programs and procurement team, providing top-notch customer service and always willing to do what they can to ensure our requests for schedule improvements are reviewed/considered and acted upon.
